

Sebastian Stadler (CH/FI)
b.1988 St.Gallen, Switzerland

Sebastian Stadler lives in Zurich where he works as an artist and freelance photographer. He studied Photography at the University of Arts in Zurich (ZHDK) and the University of Arts in Lausanne (ECAL). After having graduated in Lausanne he stayed and worked in Berlin, Helsinki, Paris (studio grant at cité des arts) and did a working stay in Yerevan (Armenia) for half a year. Stadler's work has been shown in solo and group exhibitions, most recently at the Kunstzeughaus in Rapperswil (2017). Stadler received a Swiss Award in 2013 and 2017 the grant of Canton of Thurgau. In December 2017 he finished his first art-in-building project in Switzerland. Works by Sebastian Stadler are represented in multiple collections, such as the Canton of St.Gallen art collection and Collection Credit Suisse.
